GREAT FAIR IN MERCER COUNTY

Lincoln County Exhibitors Fare Very Well And Big Crows Are On Hand Each Day—Awards

The Country Fair Circuit up in this end of the state opened most auspiciously at Harrodsburg Tuesday. Although the weather was very warm it was what everybody called "ideal fair weather," and the people didn't seem to mind that they were on hand by the thousands "from the lead mines." A splendid program was offered each day, the show of horse and other live stock being very good as were also the exhibits in the floral hall department. Secretary Clei Coleman was on the job all of the time, with a splendid and most accommodating bunch of young fellows as assistants and they made the visitors from far and near feel that it was good to have been there.

Quite a number from Lincoln were on hand each day but the third day, Thursday, was the big day for Lincoln county people, and fully 50 or more went over primarily to boost for Stanford's big fair, Aug. 23, 24 and 25.

Stanford and Lincoln county exhibitors fared well in show rings. The great Harris and Woods string of show mules had things almost their own way in the hybrid classes. C. S. Lyons, of this city, took a big bunch of blues on his poultry. The complete rewards on the live stock poultry and horse rings up to 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon were as follows:

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR
One of the most attractive and delightful affairs of the season was the meeting of the Rook Club with Mrs. T. A. Rice Thursday afternoon.

The guests of honor were Miss Willie Hocker, of Pine Bluff, Ark., and Miss Olivia Baldwin, of Richmond. The handsome home was made a bower of loveliness with garden flowers, the prevailing tone being pink and white.

Punch was served by Mesdames C. E. Tate and Lelia Cook, assisted by Miss Bertie McClure. Delicious ices and cakes were served after the games.

Among the guests were Mesdames Wm. Severance, G. G. Perry, J. B. Foster, W. H. Shanks, S. M. Saufley, H. R. Saufley, R. C. Hocker, J. C. Bailey, G. B. Cooper, R. T. Bruce, John H. Shanks, J. B. Perkins, U. V. W. Burlington, R. T. Fewell, J. B. Paxton, E. J. Brown, Angie Ballou Duncan, Misses Annie Dunn, Mary and Esther Burch.

CARD OF THANKS
Words cannot express our thanks and appreciation to our many dear friends who so bountifully contributed after our loss by fire Thursday last week. Friends are worth more than anything in the world. May God bless them.—Joe W. Rout and wife.

MIDDLEBURG
The Baptist people are building a veranda and are putting other repairs on the parsonage. The property had become somewhat dilapidated and these repairs are adding greatly to its appearance.

"We have had fine rains of late and a fine corn crop is an assured fact. That crop never looked better, besides a large acreage is growing."

Katydids began their dispute in the trees on the night of the 15th, which indicated that a killing frost will delay its coming till that date in October, say those who have observed these things.

Mrs. J. C. Coulter cut her hand pretty badly a few days since while canning fruit. She twisted the top off a can when her hand came in contact with the broken glass.

Jordan S. McWhorter has returned from Danville, where he went some two weeks ago to be treated for cancer. On reaching the hospital it was decided that amputation of his right arm was necessary and Drs. Jackson, Couch and others performed the operation. Jordan is one of the cleverest of fellows and his friends here greatly sympathize with him in his misfortune.

UNCLE SAM GETS TWO HERE

Will Lee and Jeff Bryant Again Charged With Bootlegging.

Jeff Bryant and Bill Lee, two notorious bootleggers, of Macksville, were arrested here Wednesday by Deputies C. L. Winfrey and H. R. Saufley and taken to Danville to have their preliminary trial before U. S. Commissioner Lawwill. This is the second time Deputy Collector Saufley has gotten the goods on these two violators and it is a pretty safe prediction that Judge Cochran of the Federal court will give them a penitentiary sentence this time, which means that Stanford will be rid of these two undesirable for at least a year, during which time they will be put at hard labor.

CREAT TROTTING COLT.

His many friends "back home" are greatly interested in the success which John Engleman is having with his creek three-year-old trotting horse. Harrod's Creek, on the big line this season, John Engleman is a brother of R. C. Engleman of this city and is one of the most experienced trotting horse men in the business. He has won three starts with his great young harness horse already this year and the harness racing season has just begun. Harrod's Creek has trotted a mile in 2:08 and is said to have "made a break" yet in a race. It is reported that Mr. Engleman has him entered in $50,000 worth of stakes.

MISS ETHEL BRACKETT DEAD.

After an illness of several months, Miss Ethel Brackett breathed her last at her home on East Main street about noon Thursday. She was a daughter of J. W. Brackett and he with several sisters and brothers survive, her mother having died when Miss Brackett was but six years old. Deceased was in her 21st year and was an exceptionally bright and attractive girl. Her friends, and they are many, are deeply grieved over her untimely death. Since a child she had been a member of the church and had lived according to its teachings almost her entire life. The burial will take place in Buffalo cemetery Saturday afternoon after services at the home at 3 o'clock, by Rev. P. L. Bruce.

WARFIELD—BERRY

Mt. Moriah, July, 28.
"Two hearts with but a single thought"

"Two hearts that beat as one."

Last Sunday at seven forty-five, Mr. Ponzo Berry and Miss Orithin Jessie Warfield, of this place were married at the Mt. Moriah Christian church. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin Bridal March. First came the attendants—Thompson Berry and Miss Josephine Warfield, followed by the bride and groom, here they were met by Elder L. M. Bowling, pastor of the church, who in a beautiful and impressive ring ceremony, said the words which united the hearts and lives of this popular young couple.

What shall we say of the bride? She was handsomely attired in white silk chiffon poplin with over-lace and bridal veil, and certainly looked lovely. She is one of our most popular young ladies and is a bright and shining light in the Christian Church being primary teacher and an excellent singer. The groom is a substantial farmer and numbers his friends by the score. We congratulate him on winning such a charming young lady for his bride. May their path-way through life be strewn with flowers in the wish of A Friend.

JOE BEASLEY KILLED.
Joe Beasley, 36 years old, of Clintonville, Bourbon county, who has a great many relatives in this section of the state was struck by lightning and instantly killed about 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon on the Letcher Weathers farm, near Clintonville. Mr. Beasley, in company with his father, Mason Beasley, and several others had been working in a tobacco field on Mr. Weather's place. Seeing that a storm was approaching they sought shelter in a tobacco barn near by.

Hardly had they reached the barn when the storm broke. Mr. Beasley and his father were standing in the door, the others having gone to the rear of the barn. Mr. Beasley and his father were commenting on the storm and the former asked if it would be safe there in case of lightning. The words were hardly said before a bolt of lightning struck the door of the barn, killing Mr. Beasley instantly and severely shocking his father.

The crystal on his watch was melted and the works were torn to pieces but there was no mark of any kind on his body. The barn was only slightly damaged. Mr. Beasley is survived by his father, three sisters. Mrs. Albert Myers, of Lexington; Mrs. William Mann, of Clintonville, and Mrs. Earnest Stivers, of Jacksonville; two brothers, R. N. Beasley, of Paint Lick, and Ben Beasley, of Lexington.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.
"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A durgist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Obtainable everywhere.

Benefited by Chamberlain's Liniment
"Last winter I used Chamberlain's Liniment for rheumatic pains, stiffness and soreness of the knees, and can conscientiously say that I have never used anything that did me so much good."—Edward Craft, Elba, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Green Tucker, Colored Meets Sudden Death While Taking Shelter from Storm in Mat Myers' Barn.

Lightning, which has been playing havoc with barns, buildings and other property in Lincoln and adjoining counties for the past week or so, took its toll of human life here about three o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Green Tucker, colored, who was working for Mat Myers on the W. H. Shanks farm, on the Somerset pike, two miles south of Stanford, was struck by a bolt of lightning and instantly killed. Mr. Myers and eight other men were standing within a few feet of Tucker when he was killed. Several were severely shocked. All had most miraculous escapes from death.

Mr. Myers and his hands, including Tucker, took refuge in the large barn, when the severe thunder, lightning and rain storm swept over this section about three o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The men were standing about in the center of the structure in which they had sought refuge. They felt that there was much less danger there than close to a door. Witnesses of the fatality say that Tucker was standing a little off to himself, with his hands in his pockets when a blinding flash came. It struck the barn, and a ball of white like fire descended, seemed to run along the main supporting beam of the barn roof, and to drop right on Tucker. Mr. Myers was looking at it and saw it strike the unfortunate negro.

"It struck Tucker with what seemed terrific force," said Mr. Myers, in describing the accident, "and lifted him off his feet, several feet above the ground. He fell backward without a sound. The flash was dazzling and blinded us all. When we got to Tucker he was dead. I felt his pulse and there was none. Tom Mobley grabbed a bucket of water and threw it on his face, thinking he was only stunned, perhaps, but when I felt for his pulse I saw he was stone dead. The boys picked up his body and laid it on a trough and a sort of electricity seemed to play over the body for several seconds afterward. Ham Adams and Tom Tapp were severely shocked. Two hogs, one on each side of Tucker were killed also."

Mr. Myers said that very little damage was done to the barn, the bolt of lightning seeming to enter through the opening or areaway and to run along the main beam before it dropped to the ground, striking Tucker, as it did so.

Tucker was a hard working negro, respected and liked by all who knew him. He lived near Boneyville and his remains were taken home to his wife and large family after it was seen there was no chance to resuscitate him.

BAD MAIL SERVICE.

I. J. Misses Mail Connection to West End Three Times.

For three straight times the I. J. has missed getting to its subscribers at Moreland and Hustonville on the morning after publication, due to fault in "Jace Sam's" service somewhere, as the papers have left the office here regularly each Tuesday and Friday afternoon in ample time to make the required connection at Junction City. Postmaster George D. Weatherford at Hustonville and Postmistress Mary Bruce here have kindly taken up the matter with the P. O. department at Washington in an effort to learn where the delay occurs; whether it is at Junction City or whether the papers are carried by Moreland on the Q. & C. mail train.
